Darling, —

Just a note to tell I have time for. — Had a most terrific hot night — party for Miss Weaver.
A few words Dr. took on the side in the "new"
#1230. Find the fun to have his run on these roads! I have never laughed so hard!

The staff is really getting better. Played my way last night. Really,
I'm having a better time!
So, —————

diapers yesterday, did everything. Why, dearie, I'll be so versed in the household arts - it'll amuse you.

A lamp has already been bought - that's just the same. I drove Mrs. Mutter to Harlem & picked me up on 14th - the most expensive - I'll admit but it serves the purpose well!

Wrote Peter Sue &
Told her the news! -
A h well!

I love ~~to~~ you
dear - like anything -

en route to Nantucket
Sept 6 - 1941

Dear Bob,

You've been a part of our family life so much this past year that it's not going to be hard at all to welcome you in as a permanent addition - I suppose the addition will have to be more or less in theory than in practice if you take leggie to Florida or elsewhere. But we'll have to have you as an incorporated part of our widely scattering business.

I can safely say also that I can trust her to you for understanding, love and companionship. You have a flair I think for enjoying life and enjoying to be ²downed by the reverses and your steady beliefs nervousness and her occasional fears. -

I know that she will give to you what she does to all of us, - a breezy enthusiasm, - a conscientious thoroughness, and never failing interest in human life.

I admit I'd like to hang on to her a little longer, but I want her to have what makes her happiest and early marriage may develop
a great companionship
and understanding. -

Meanwhile will try to keep the secret - that is perhaps well guessed by most of your friends.

We had a nice call as your father last night.
 He admitted he missed
 you, but said he was delighted with the news. - I hope we'll see some more of him in time

Meantime, I know you are making good on your own line, and I believe you will rise fast in a coming form of world importance.

Best wishes to my
 future son-in-law.

Dear Bob:

I know how wasting the enclosed
letter from your country not so promptly and I might. because I have been trying to find something to express which she has not already written in her letters. She has read it all so completely and so affectionately that I can only confirm on my own heart she has said.

Thus step no quite a new one, and I think will prove for two weeks, and
well headed person
a very happy man

1
of having your own
note, you have a common new England background and probably look at things with quite a common point of view -
which keeps us as starting point. The rest we will leave to you and with great confidence. Of course the realities of the coming formal war in central states of things in no case of rejoicing but stand in an element of progress.
Which the order books
draw us with to stay

So we shall be happy to see you later next year in the fact believe you are not necessarily elsewhere. And many times congratulate our principals and the parents. With best wishes
Richard Lawrence
